

HOUSE ENVY

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES NEVER LOOKED SO GOOD

IN THE BEGINNING...

Brad and Jenna just moved into their two-story New England colonial. It's a charming house in a great neighborhood, and the school for their eight-year old, Jake, is just down the street.

There's only one problem: the kitchen is as bland as unsalted butter. And what's worse...their neighbors down the street just redid their kitchen and it's fabulous.

MAKINGS OF A CURE...

To cure their house envy, they meet up with our design team and look at three of their neighbors' kitchens, all in different styles:

MEDITERRANEAN

CONTEMPORARY

A DREAM COME TRUE

Jenna grew up on the Nantucket coast, so she and Brad choose the cottage style she loves. Our renovation team makes it a reality, curing their House Envy and giving them the kitchen - and home - of their dreams.
